“Professionals meeting Professionals, where Knowledge and Numbers together, can make Wayne County more Literate.”

Last week’s program:

Vivian Ashmawi, executive director of Communities in Schools Wayne County, introduced the 12 site coordinators that work for the CIS organization. Each coordinator took their turn in telling about a particular situation that they have experienced in working with the students.

There were coordinators from several different schools present at the meeting.

We also recognized the 21st Century Scholars program and the east-central Indiana region’s staff. Their office is located at Indiana University East. This group works very closely with CIS. They depend a lot on the CIS site coordinators to keep the families informed about the merits of the 21st Century program.

HARLEM AMBASSADOR COMMITTEE VOLUNTEERS: October 18th, 2008
