Last Week’s Program:

President Al presented to Past-President Jodie her pin along with thanking her on behalf of the members for a job well done.

President Al than informed the Club that our district governor Judy Hollander will be visiting us on August 4th, 2009. President Al talked about the next year as a club and what we might choose to do as projects. 1. We are going to do a raffle to raise money for the Rotary International 2. Continue the dictionary project 3. Continue the Quiz Bowl 4. Work on an international project

We also talked about our meeting place as well as membership. The club will offer 200 Paul Harris points for each new badge that goes in the box for a new member The club will also offer the new incoming Rotarian 100 Paul Harris points for joining Rotary.

This will be for the next 10 new badges that we get in the box.

Also on Friday July 10th, Jodie, Mandy, and Al all met at Fairview School to see the Third Grade Academy accept their books for the summer. We talked to many kids who remembered us from the Dictionary Project. The Pal-Item was there and our name was mentioned in the Saturday edition of the Pal-Item regarding the Third Grade Academy.
