Last Week’s Program:

Dorothy Drummond spoke to the Richmond Rotary Club on Tuesday about the Middle East Conflict.

Drummond has traveled to 70 countries throughout her life, and is a very accomplished author, educator and (obviously) world traveler. Drummond especially takes an interest in the relationship between people and the land they live on, and the relationship between past and present. She explains her role as a teacher as being the one who “makes the complex, understandable.”

Through her group discussions and her book “Holy Land Whose Land?” Drummond becomes our teacher in making the Middle East

Conflict more understandable.

After our meeting, she had her book available for sale. Many members purchased it, hoping to learn more about the important story behind her passion and knowledge. Jodie Scheiben
