Last Week’s Program:

Four students who were members of the Richmond American City team as well as Mayor Sally Hutton presented a program on the achievement of garnering First Place among all competition in July in Florida. Students included Jeffrey Caldwell, Shandice Joiner, Elaine Brady, and Shauna Flanagan.

Students discussed the time the team members devoted to practicing their presentations and the constant revisions the speeches underwent. Although the group did not sidestep any negatives impacting Richmond, they focused upon the positive aspects of the community, offering solutions to problems previously mentioned.

The focus of the team was on Richmond's youth and the importance of their feeling valued.

Most other communities sent adults to represent them; however, Richmond's concentration on young people in the end won the hearts and votes of the judges.

The students concluded by citing examples of how their lives have changed since becoming involved with the program and the feeling that winning gave each of them. jlk
