Quote of the week!

“Don’t waste the present thinking about how you could have changed the past. We could trace our current position to every decision we have ever made – including where we sat in kindergarten. We could ponder these things endlessly, but it wouldn’t get us anywhere. It does not pay to dwell on why or how we took a wrong turn. What’s productive is reflecting upon how to get from where we are to where we want to go. The same applies to our club: Don’t wallow in disappointment over how we got to where we are. Think about what exactly we need to do to get where we want to be.” Anonymous

Last Week's Program:

Joyce Brown was inducted into the club membership by President Al Fullerton. He shared with Joyce and the members what Rotary is not and what Rotary is. Rotary is not a political, charitable or a religious organization. Rotary IS an organization of business and professional people pledged to upholding the highest professional standards based on "The Four Way Test."

WE ALL WELCOME JOYCE AS A FELLOW ROTARIAN.

Jason Troutwine, Director of Reid Hospital Foundation, conducted a question and answer session. Areas discussed included hospital food and patient selection, robotic surgery technology, and the Art to Heart event which is presently being planned for its 18th year. He noted that the project shares profits with the Richmond art museum. Other items discussed included utilization of hospitalists at Reid and the incidence of H1N1. Troutwine gave a brief overview of the Foundation, citing its history, board makeup, and total dollars raised by the foundation since its inception in 1975. jlk

We held our first official meeting at our new meeting place, Little Sheba's. A good time was had by all. Even Matt Stegall walked down to the meeting. We sure were glad to see and talk with him again.
